Herbert Lane, road commissioner of Plainfield, is in the city to-day on business.

Be sure and see Pearl White in "The Lightning Raider," starting at the Bijou to-morrow—adv.

H. Willis Carr of Chicago, Ill., a native of Barre, was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

Robert B. Jones of Hotel Barre has returned to Barre after passing a few days in Boston on business.

Harold P. Ladden, bank examiner, is in the city to-day on business connected with the local banking concerns.

Fancywork, aprons, candy and food on sale Monday afternoon, April 21, vestry Church of the Good Shepherd—adv.

Mason Pierce, who sailed for France last September, has returned to his home in this city and has been discharged from the service.

Miss Lesel Hunter and Westie Avery of Hartford, Conn., are guests of Mrs. Mary Hunter of 6 Prospect avenue for a few days.

Mrs. Nellie Sawyer of Merchant street has been ill several days with the grip, but her condition was somewhat improved yesterday.

Miss Lucille M. Ewen of New York arrived in the city this morning for a visit in the home of her mother, Mrs. Elsie Ewen of Orange street.

Largest line of new and second-hand ranges in Barre, Perfection and Kerogas oil stoves, wicks and ovens. Call and get prices. E. A. Prindle, Worthen block.

A large shipment of fish and game law booklets were received yesterday by City Clerk James Mackay. Those having obtained a license for the present year can get a book by calling at the clerk's office.

John Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Rogers of Orange street, arrived here yesterday from Boston to spend the Easter vacation from Harvard dental college.

Austin O. Macnell, who recently received his discharge, left yesterday for Bellows Falls, where he will visit his mother before returning to his position at Syracuse, N. Y.

In competition with 40 internationally advertised electric cleaners, the Eureka won the grand prize at the Panama exposition. It costs only $37.50. Free trial in your own home. Montpelier & Barre Light & Power Co.

The prayer service last evening at the Hedding M. E. church was well attended. To-night at 7:30 will be held another service in preparation for Easter. Rev. B. G. Lipsky will preach on "The Price Paid for the World's Redemption," and there will be special music. All are invited.

August Haka, Viljo Vieta and William Storm, three quarrymen from Graniteville, tarried so long in the city yesterday afternoon that when dusk came the way home appeared blurred and devious. Before the city hall was reached, Constable Morris intercepted their progress and, finding the three more than he could handle, called on J. F. Cook to assist him.

The three visitors spent the night in the lockup and this morning before Judge Scott entered pleas of guilty of intoxication and paid fines and costs of $10.95 for the first two and $11.45 for the third.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gale left last night for New York City and to-morrow they expect to greet their son, Kenneth Gale, a member of Gen. Pershing's band, which organization is returning to the United States in order to tour the eastern states in the interests of the Victory loan. The band is coming on the Von Steuben, which is scheduled to dock at Hoboken, N. J., on Saturday. Prior to joining the Pershing band Mr. Gale was a member of the 1st Vermont regiment band and later the 57th Pioneer regiment's musical organization. After going abroad last October with the latter band he was chosen as a trombone player with the Pershing band, which is composed of picked men from all the various musical organizations with the American expeditionary forces.
